

Ally Carlsten has recently been accepted to NYU Tisch School of Performing Arts / New Studio on Broadway! Ally is from Rhode Island and has trained in NYC for the past four years. She began her theatre training at A Class Act NY where she performed in Legally Blonde Jr., Thoroughly Modern Millie, and Beauty and The Beast at Five Angels Theatre. Ally's more recent roles have been playing Eponine in Les Miserables, Gabriella and Sharpay in High School Musical, and Skylar in Bring it On. In 2018, Ally was awarded Broadway World's Regional Semi-Professional Award For her role as Elle Woods in Legally Blonde the Musical at Academy Players RI. Ally has just finished her last high school play, Newsies where she played Katherine Plummer.

Ally is also a dancer and a former Level 10 gymnast and National Competitor under USA Gymnastics . Ally studies jazz and hip hop at Broadway Dance Center and is a member of the NYC Tap Crew where studies under Thommie Retter Entertainment. This past summer Ally was chosen to study at NYU Steinhardt School and perform at the Frederick Loewe Theatre.

Ally has recently graduated early from high school with the hope of training and auditioning for Regional Theatre work this summer before heading off to New York University. She is so thankful to Thommie Retter for this opportunity to direct this production and form relationships with all involved in this project.
