

ERICH SCHUETT BIO:

At the age of five Erich Schuett started performing in front of crowds and by the age of nine he was already singing, dancing, and acting in competitive engagements. While Erich loves to perform - he has appeared in European venues and multiple US cities spanning Los Angeles to New York City - this grounded performer has one mission – continue to train properly and continuously with passion! Erich's hard work and talent paid off when he was tapped to play Friedrich for the Broadway 50th Anniversary National Tour of The Sound of Music. Once off tour Erich's musical abilities continued to be highlighted, as he was selected as a finalist in the American Protégé International Vocal Competition and sang at Carnegie Hall Stern Auditorium. He was selected a winner in the Junior Division, NY Lyric Opera Competition, and was asked to perform on The Harry Connick Jr TV Show. He has performed in and sang Tosca, Macbeth, and in multiple cabarets all over NYC. Erich was selected as a 2018 Honors Performance Series Sydney Opera House Finalist, and had a 2017 Grammy consideration for his first professional recording "A Christmas Presence". He was given the honor of being the first and the youngest American artist to be invited to Italy to train in the art of Belcanto, where he was honored to be invited to sing with the Belcanto Italiano Foundation in the home of famous tenor Beniamino Gigli. Erich recently wrapped filming his first feature film "18 To Party" and has appeared in other films, commercials, and TV episodes and is currently the voice of Bazooka Joe and is representing Scholastic Books on national and international TV ads.
